Archdiocese of Santa Fe: Pilgrimages for Vocations (PFV) Drug Policy

Unlawful manufacture, distribution, dispensing, possession, use, transfer, or sale of drugs is prohibited regardless of whether this occurs at PFV associated parishes, at official PFV functions, or on official PFV business. Although medical and recreational marijuana use is permitted in some states, such use remains illegal under federal law. Therefore, its use is prohibited under this document.

WAIVER OF LIABILITY

I, The Applicant (or Parent/Guardian), accept all responsibility for any injury, accident or illness while on the Pilgrimages for Vocations, or during its preparation. I release the Archdiocese of Santa Fe, the Parishes involved, Clergy, Religious, Lay leaders, and Law Enforcement Agencies involved from the Liability of the same.

I also realize that in order to walk in May, I must be an active member of my local group and attend the May Day of Recollection from 1:00pm-4pm on Sunday, April 28, 2019 (location TBA). If I am a new pilgrim, I am required to have a sponsor and I should walk with them. I am also required to participate in a practice walk comparable to the route I will be walking in. The place is yet to be determined. More information will be posted on the Pilgrimage website and/or mailed out.
